

AMCHAM COLOMBIA SUPPORTS ADVANCES IN U.S.-COLOMBIA FREE TRADE AGREEMENT

CONTACT: Carlos Alberto Solano, Communications Director, Tel: +57-1-587-7828, ext. 108

Bogotá, Colombia – April 7, 2011. The Colombian American Chamber of Commerce (AmCham Colombia) welcomes the announcement by the Government of the United States and the Government of Colombia that they have reached agreement on an “Action Plan Related to Labor Rights.”

“The agreement is serious and meaningful. It is another demonstration of the Santos Administration’s commitment to continued progress in the protection of labor rights,” said Camilo Reyes Rodríguez, Executive Director, AmCham Colombia. “There is important work ahead and AmCham Colombia looks forward to supporting the Government of Colombia as it undertakes actions that will benefit Colombia and Colombian workers.”

AmCham Colombia will continue its active advocacy in support of the U.S. –Colombia FTA, which will support jobs and economic growth in both countries.

###

About the Colombian American Chamber of Commerce – AmCham Colombia:

AmCham Colombia has worked to strengthen trade and investment ties between the United States and Colombia and represented U.S. business interests for over 55 years. AmCham Colombia member companies support jobs throughout the United States that are tied to trade and investment in Colombia. AmCham Colombia’s 940 member companies nationwide include U.S. multinational companies, small and medium U.S. companies, Colombian companies that are representatives and distributors for U.S. companies, owners of U.S. franchises, as well as Colombian companies that import from the United States, and export to and invest in the United States. AmCham member companies are committed to contributing to the prosperity of both countries and are leaders in corporate social responsibility.