

December 4, 2007

AT&T APPLAUDS SENATE PASSAGE OF THE U.S. – PERU TRADE PROMOTION AGREEMENT

(The following may be attributed to Len Cali, AT&T Senior Vice President, External and International Affairs.)

AT&T congratulates the Congress for recognizing the value of promoting meaningful trade with countries like Peru that do business with both multi-national and small and medium-sized U.S. businesses. Today's bipartisan vote to approve the U.S. – Peru Trade Promotion Agreement will help the U.S. economy and well as American consumers who will reap the benefits of a more competitive global telecommunications environment.

#

Contact:
Claudia Jones
202-457-3933