Nearly 200 State and Local Chambers Support Trade Agreements with Peru, Colombia, and Panama

Last month, nearly 200 state and local chambers of commerce from across the United States joined with hundreds of American companies of every size, sector, and region to urge Congress to approve the pending trade promotion agreements with Peru, Colombia, and Panama. In a joint letter to Congress, the Chamber Federation and many of the businesses it represents wrote: "Both the economic interests and national security of the United States will be advanced by a closer partnership with these countries, whose dynamic economies and moderate politics recommend them as friends, allies, and partners." From coast to coast, the show of support is impressive:
